

Guidance for those who arrive at the Sofia Airport for the conference:

You will arrive at Terminal 2 (In rare cases, if you arrive at Terminal 1, there is a shuttle bus each 30 min., free of charge to the Terminal 2).

Once you pass all the checking procedures and go out of the airport, turn left and go to the end of the pavement, walking along the airport and you will enter the Metro station. You may buy ticket for the Metro at the ticket office which is based at the entrance of Metro station or you may put your credit/debit card on the screen above the bars for going in to the trains. The ticket fee is 1.60 Bulgarian leva - 0.80 Euro cents. Take the train and go to the station Sofia University. It takes approximately 20-30 minutes to reach the University station. Once you get off the train at the University station, turn right and get out of the Metro. Once you pass the bars for going out of the station, there is several exits. If you take the one which is on the right, you will be in front of the University main building. If you go straight up, this is the way to the hotel Intercontinental – see the map below. If you have chosen hotel Crystal Palace, then use the exit for the University main building and see the map below. For the conference hall, which is in the University main building – north wing.
